News from GSIG

How is your Group is conducting Meetings?

We'd like to hear from you, our dear readers, how AA groups in Greater Seattle are conducting meetings now that some Covid restrictions are ending. Are you still Zoom only? Are you using the hybrid format, relying on in-person gatherings and Zoom participation?

Does your group conduct in-person sessions and offer a separate Zoom meeting? Has your group gone back to only in-person meetings? If you're meeting in-person, are masks required or optional? There are no wrong answers, just your meeting's group conscience.

An informal, anecdotal sampling of activity at intergroup offices in Portland, Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego revealed a wide variety of responses that seem similar to what is happening here, at least that's what we heard from three of the four cities list above. One location declined to give any specifics about what's happening there.

We'd love to hear how things have gone at the meetings you attend. Please send descriptions (200 words or less) of your meeting conditions to newsletter@seattleaa.org.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Nightwatch

Night watch is the 24 hour hotline that gives callers a real person to talk to. These positions are forwarded to your phone and only one, four hour shift once a month. We need volunteers for 4 hour shifts 10pm, 2am, 6am.

Also, we are still searching for NEW Nightwatch scheduling coordinator.

12th Step Calls – Put your name on the 12th step call list or join the new 12th Step Committee. Reach out to anita@seattleaa.org

Juvenile Detention Meetings

Bridge the Gap

We need a few new Bridge program volunteers for people that are being released from facilities and want to connect with AA meetings right away.

Corrections Correspondence is always looking for people to write to inmates, especially men. It's a great way to do service for people that are starved for contact on the outside.

Group GSIG Answer Phones

How about your group help out at the office? Sign up for a monthly commitment to answer phones at Intergroup. It is one way to have a meeting with members of your group and have a chance to help the next suffering alcoholic.

We would love contributions from you. Please share your thoughts, ideas, suggestions and comments by emailing them to us at high_and_dry@SeattleAA.org. We aren't promising that everything sent to us will be published, but we will be reading everything sent our way.

Step Six: “Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.”

By Mary E.

Going through Step Five with my sponsor was the first time in my life that I had honestly looked at myself and my actions. It was intimidating to think about the long list of behaviors I needed to think about changing. Going home after we finished, I quietly sat and felt ready to have my Higher Power help me remove my defects.

Reading Step Six in Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions helps me think about the flaws in my character and realize that some of the worst have been toned down, but many, many are still there. Being ready and being honest that I need a lot of help every day gives me a chance to allow my Higher Power into my day-to-day interactions with other people.

Step Six talks about "the best possible attitude one can take in order to make a beginning on this lifetime job." I thank Bill W. for expressing Step Six like that way.

I don't, won't and cannot complete this Step in a checklist fashion. It's an everyday exercise for the rest of my life.

Last week I was feeling like I had a cold and took a home Covid test that was positive. My reaction and thoughts revealed my character defects:

"I don't want to put myself in five-day isolation at home." — Character defects: Deceitfulness, pride, vanity.

"I don't want to notify people I inadvertently exposed." — Character defects: Self-pity, rationalization, pride, resentment, control.

"I don't want to have Covid." — Character defects: Pride, denial.

My character defects can damage me and the people around me, so I followed directions and have done all these actions that I didn't want to do for the good of myself and others.

I love that our beautiful AA program helps me everyday to reduce the impact of my character defects. As I grow in humility, I can have truer connections with myself and with others.

Tradition Six: “An A.A. group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the A.A. name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.”

By Peeps

You'll often hear at AA meetings that the Steps tell us how to save our lives, while the Traditions, which are the product of our collective experiences as recovering alcoholics, keep us from repeating mistakes that endangered our fellowship. The Steps inspire us, while the Traditions keep us safe as we trudge our common path.

I love how Tradition Six is covered in “Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions,” sighting numerous problems that sprouted to life when recovery was combined with money and publicity. The book accurately describes my kind of recovered addicts, the ones who want to be happier than happy and overthink everything.

“Having learned to live so happily, we'd show everyone else how. Why, we thought, our Society of Alcoholics Anonymous might prove to be the spearhead of a new spiritual advance! We might transform the world!” — page 156 of Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions.

Many folks attending an AA business meeting have witnessed that kind of zeal up close and way too personal. Our history is littered with the bones of great ideas that flunked the Reality Test. We can't stop wanting to help, that's natural, but experience has shown that desire can create unintended and unhelpful consequences.

Educating the public on the dangers of alcohol abuse is a great idea, especially if “real alcoholics” explain the grim and potentially fatal details. But we have to run our plans through the prisms of other Traditions and Steps.

There are dangers in paying AA members to deliver the info. There are problems with financial and ethical boundaries when alcoholics want to run hospitals, schools, jails, banks and other public/private facilities that influence and impact the lives of alcoholics.

Experience has proven our entire focus should be limited to “carrying the message of recovery,” which is difficult enough without the pressures that come with running a business. Our beloved Big Book tells us members should not be paid for sharing our “experience, strength and hope” with fellow sufferers. That is NOT how it works.

We have to do it anonymously. AA unity must never be endangered. We can't charge for it. As one of my heroes, Chuck C., said: We carry the message “for fun and for free.”

I love reading about an enthusiastic, early New York state group's failed efforts to provide a significant array of services to alcoholics, that included health clubs and employment counseling, to name a couple.

Things fell apart when they tried to put it into practice and when they tried to write down an expansive set of rules to govern the enterprise. The plan was to submit the “rules” of their plan to the General Services Offices for approval and, eventually, AA-wide adoption

They signaled the end of the effort with the delivery of a book that contained blank pages except for one, where the only rule that survived the creation process was printed. On that page was Rule 62 : Don't Take Yourself Too Damn Seriously.

A DRUNK IN YOUR LIFE

By Anonymous

Be aware my dear of your every fear,

If you have a drunk in your life.

A disease, could be, but probably,

a drunk they will always be.

You want to help, well don't we all,'

But just what can you do?

First they deny, then they lie

"I can quit when I want!" they cry,

They tell you what you want to hear.

"No, I won't drink like before."

They set you up, they wake you up, and finally,

"just one more".

The scams, the plans, the reprimands,

All fly out the door.

You have nothing to loose that has not been lost,

You do what you need to survive.

Beware my dear, of your every fear,

if you have a drunk in your life

For nothing on earth, can make them change

Accept their own free will.

The lower they go, the more you will know,

That just before they have sunk,

They see the light and go into the night

Headed to be a dead drunk.

Understanding the How Dry I Am Club's History

By Vito M.

A history of Seattle Intergroup's How Dry I Am Club (or Birthday Club as it is now called).

What is it? The member sends GSIG $1 for every year of sobriety ($1 for 1 year, $2 for 2 years, etc.). Hopefully it gets to become a habit and members contribute every year.

How did it start? Before the How Dry I Am Club, Seattle Intergroup started something called The Fifth a Month Club in September of 1958. It ended in April of 1974. AA members signed a pledge to donate $5 a month to support Seattle Intergroup. The first year it collected $2,032.

The first AA Birthday Club started in Oklahoma City in 1954. The delegate from Oklahoma took the idea to the General Service Conference and the General Service Conference adopted it in 1961. It is now part of AA worldwide.

Seattle Intergroup adopted the idea in 1983 and it is still going, 39 years later. In the beginning, when the circulation of the High & Dry subscriptions were 600 to 800 copies a month, the Birthday Club was very popular.

As the High & Dry paper copy subscriptions waned, so did the Birthday Club participation. The last couple of years we have made an effort to revive it and members have started to contribute again.

We have Birthday Club packages at the Intergroup that can be picked up and taken to your home groups and/or district meetings for distribution. Each package contains 15-20 mailing envelopes and forms. The envelopes have Seattle Intergroup's address on them with a contribution form attached.

This has been a tradition for raising money for the past 39 years. It's up to the Intergroup Representative and the District liaisons to make this information known to their respective groups and/or districts.

Seattle Intergroup appreciates all of the efforts by the fellowship to help with this endeavor.

Chair (Astri):

There has not been much out of the ordinary going on since our last Board meeting. I have been working with Nancy (EastSide Intergroup) as we prepare a presentation for a Third Legacy Workshop, scheduled for May 21st, 12:30PM till 2:30PM sponsored by District 34. Jacob, Puget Sound Central Service Office Board Chair, and I have also started planning our presentation for the July, Area 72 Quarterly.

Most important is looking forward to our June 21st, Spring Assembly. Please make sure the GSRs at your Districts understand that every group served by GSIG is invited to send a representative, to carry their groups conscience. We do have issues that need to be discussed by our members and then voted on at the Assembly:

- The recommendation to form a 12th Step Committee.
- Policy & Procedure approval.
- GSIG Insurance expanding to include coverage for groups who need, but can not afford to insure themselves.

Please, again review these issues with your GSRs and encourage a big turnout at our Hybrid Spring Assembly.

Thank you so much for allowing me to serve. More than that, thank you all for your service,

Vice Chair (Aaron):

I am available to come talk to Districts or groups about GSIG

We are beginning to process orders from the new bookstore website. Some shipping weight glitches to be worked out, otherwise things are rolling along.

We have also had an increase in the need for fancier coins due to the Solution Bookstore Closing, so we have made sure that we have a good stock of those as well.

Call Log information: Total Calls: 151 12th Step Calls: 7

Procedure: Anita and I are working on filling the Nightwatch and Alt. Nightwatch positions, we have willing candidates for both positions. We are re-visioning the job descriptions for these positions as well as the responsibilities for the Daily Coordinators and On Call positions. If anyone is interested in finding out more about these volunteer opportunities please email anita@seattleaa.org or lara@seattleaa.org.

Picnic buttons are being made, Hats have been purchased and are on their way.
